The Aeon of Typhon

The world is falling apart slowly.

Natural disasters, political corruption and the economic crisis indicate a new era.

Typhon was the most powerful God amongst the Titans, seeking revenge for his loved ones who were decimated by the Olympian Gods.
Typhon was the only God who was able to defeat the Zeus, the God of humans.
Yet a new battle came, where Typhon again threw huge rocks and mountains to Zeus but eventually a lightning made him to flee to Sicily, where Zeus crushed him and shut him in the bowels of the earth (Mount Etna)
In this new Aeon humans experience Typhon's wrath.

Typhon is self knowledge

We see Typhon as an image of ourselves and by his story we can understand iniquity.

Typhon is monstrous in part because he is an unnatural synthesis of distinct species. He is part man (from head to thighs) and part beast with wings.

Typhon had a hundred dragons heads projecting from his hands, which, in combination with the huge coils of vipers, emitted terrifying shouts and hissings. The hundred heads of a snake growing from Typhon's shoulders and the many tongues of a dragon spoke in many voices which at times made sounds of the different animals, sounds the gods could understand.

We are monstrous as well in the sense of being unnatural when judged by the standard of corporeal nature and certainly our souls are winged charioteers. We have consciousness about who we think we are. Nous is a complexity that belongs to us.

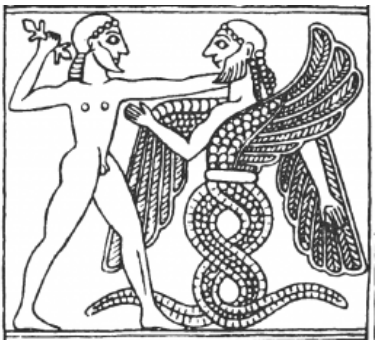
Typhon's complexity consists in his many voices.

In this passage Typhon is the mean between the two extreme alternatives.

Man and beast. The contrast what is within and what is without the psyche

Typhoon is already a representative of chaos and destruction. We envision an unnatural creature of perplexing complexity and of unbridled hubris. Both self and knowledge would seem impossible under these circumstances, given the almost complete absence of pattern, structure shape and stability that would characterize our typhonian soul.

Typhon's desire to dominate the gods is our desire to master the universe.



Book of Nous

NAOS is based on the principles inherent in the Pentagram of Typhon but done from the interpretive view of the known physical properties of Energy and Matter. Integrating logic and science, it can help us find and fix imbalances in our spiritual and physical energy systems.
The Truths hidden within the Three Aspects of Typhon; man (body), beast (mind), wings (soul) will bear clues as to where we are losing our energy; why it continues to happen and how the beliefs we hold on to determine the outcome.

What you put forth comes back threefold.

There is a material that fills the region of universe above the terrestrial sphere. We call it as "aether".
Aether exists for billions of years and we live in it and on it and there is a whole procedure to learn how to make it work for us. This is called physical resonance.

Our physical bodies are energetic pools and are competent to take action and oscillate at very delicate aether levels to the universal aether that surrounds and flows through all things.

Everything flows in the Universe, proceed with care

Consciousness is the way we interact with the Universe's aether, both physical and spiritual. Collective consciousness of our entire planet and all its inhabitants seems to resonate to four universal fundamental frequencies of Typhon. Those who experience these four frequencies, harmonize best with one of them.
Ancient civilizations are an excellent paradigm of this harmonization. Apart from the incredible superhuman skills needed to build magnificent monument, these civilizations also all have in common highly evolved schools of Sophia or Wisdom. One such Sophia or gnosis is the power to apply sacred geometry, the esoteric analysis of the cosmic universe; such is the Pentagram of Typhon.

Sacred geometry is meant to amplify the aether and to connect the one source with planet earth. This is the reason that stars are connected with the four elements of East, West, North and South. In consequence, sacred geometry was so important to the Gods, that they developed an entire scientific system.

These mysteries are alive and exist even though it can't always be seen, measured, analyzed or physically explained. If science could explain these mysteries, then the quest for knowledge would be lost time and space. Still, we feel there is something and we observe the order within the Universe based on the Typhonian knowledge that we have inherited. Noeton!

The choice for our existence has been left to the Will of the Source, but the choice for what we do with that Source has been left up to us.

While the mind makes the choice and the body produces the result, it is the soul that provides the guidance for them.

In view of the fact that thought is a form of aether, in order to create something you must think it first. Once aether for something exists, the Matter will follow. Thus a thought can become into existence.

A thought can lead to Manifestation with a proper intention.

The dissimilarity in results is a matter of Choice, because a right action starts with right thinking. Hence the best choices construct the best outcomes.

Noeton, is the limitless energy that activates our thoughts into existence. Since a thought is a form of aether, it means that a Thought has always existed. Since the Law of Conservation of Energy is scientifically approved, then it confirms the infinity of a Thought. And this thought is manifested through us by the true Prince of Darkness, the God Typhon.

Lo! The Aeon of Typhon is the manifestation of the eternal aether. The Lord of Tartara is awake and we are those who will manifest his earthly existence. !

Lo! The number 56 is your mark

HAIRE TYPHON

Noeton

Opinion is based on the senses, while Knowledge is based on Noeton.

Noeton is pronounced as no-e-tón and it means "to think with consciousness". It derives from "nous", which means to intellect or to have intelligence. It is true that this intelligence is no human and this is a gift of Typhon.

Without that gift we would not understand the Necker cube and the world would still based on naïve realism.
Plato explored Noeton and maintained that the world of ideas (forms) is just as real as the world of objects.

A classical example to understand this condition of Noeton is the allegory of the cave.
The story narrates that inside a cave under the ground, several people were living with chains in such as way that they could only face and see a wall. These people could not look either back or right or left. Behind them there was a fire and every time something happens behind their back it is represented as a shadow on the wall. Since these people live all of their lives inside the cave, they have the impression that these shadows are the real manifestation of things. However, when one of these chained men was set free and sent out of the cave, this man would be blinded from the light of the sun. This man would then realize about the true existence of reality with consciousness and that his past life was built in delusion.

Noeton is the procedure when someone comes out of the delusion and experiences reality and who he is. Noeton preexisted and it is the divine soul of humanity that survives the death of the physical body.

Noeton is not based on the five senses, where the chained men trusted their senses concerning the so-called reality.

Noeton is the dynamic axis upon which civilizations and religions were created, and the reason that made man to seek spirituality.

Noeton is the bridge that connects knowledge and memory. Knowledge is memory before entering the physical body. Embrace the wisdom of Typhon!

We are born with the anamnesis, our ideas are already inside our spirit. This is the forgotten knowledge. NAOS exists to manifest this Typhonian intelligence.

Hail the Aeon of Typhon.

Hail the Typhonian Dawn.

Aether

It is called by Hindu prana, by Chinese chi, in Ancient Egypt ka etc. The definition was spread to all civilizations, but without the proper knowledge to unlock its true meanings. We simply call it Aether. However, we can also use the names that were used by our Ancestors. It is the eternal element of life. The actual Essence of life. The one that governs every living thing. Its absence makes every living organism unable to exist. There is a brief analysis for this vital force with the indication of sleeping.

Aether is the universal energy, which exists in all types of life, from the amoeba till the Homo sapiens being. The world is an ocean of Essence and everything is under the ocean. The Essence is a primary substance and it can be slipped in every living thing.

Additionally human faith is based on Aether as well.

Faith is based on believing. Believing is based on trustworthy thinking. Thus this world is filled with thoughts that become beliefs and finally blind faith. The basic ingredient for this structure is the presence of a certain stimulus.

Everything is based on faith. Faith is like a muscle, it gets stronger with exercise. Thus Homo sapiens beings need to exercise their faith for the service of all the religions worldwide. Behind the curtains of this powerful game of energies the Gods are enjoying their conquering abilities upon this planet. Their descendants, the Typhonians, possess the mystical ability of Conquerism.

Thoughts or electromagnetic kinesis in the brain do seem to take on a life of their own. Remember how your toys as a child seemed to become real beings? Your love, gave them consciousness. Ritual objects can do this a lot, so cleanse and rededicate them regularly. Likewise, together with thoughts, emotions produce electromagnetic energy, the Essence of life. One such known emotion is fear.

When a fear based on an entity has been created, like all sentient beings it will act with self preservation and attempt to propagate. Feel and breed. In this way, Homo sapiens have created uncounted billions of diverse beings.

These beings range from the not very aware stray thought forms left over from another lifetime, to very powerful Old Gods and Archetypes, like the Greek or Egyptian pantheons that have been fed and shaped by centuries of worship and love.

The Typhonian Race
Alien Intelligence & Allegory

Science declares that human beings belong to the Homo-sapiens species.

A brief definition of both words "Homo" and "sapiens" shall give the true identity of the Homo sapiens being and of the word alien as well.

The word Homo derives from the Greek word Homogenous that means "the same", "the same as" and "average". The word sapiens derives from the Latin word sapienta that means understanding and wisdom in an ironic way. Furthermore, sap means weaken and silliness. Therefore, Homo-sapiens is defined as an undistinguishable hominid species. Its members would act in the same manner and think the same, self-deceiving thoughts, relating to each other through a veil of deception within a limited field of conscious response and conditioned reflexes, rather like sheep.

It seems that Homo-sapiens will never be anything other than what the word defines.

The Alien is the name used by Homo sapiens to indicate something of a different origin, deriving from the Greek word «Allos» which means «the other» and the Latin «Alienus» which means «belonging to another». Homo sapiens use the term widely to characterize something of another planet, another country or even someone of a different way of thinking. Truly, Typhonians are indeed foreign to the common Homo sapiens eye.

Thus Alien Intelligence, is a different intelligence that belongs to another group of individuals. The one who will change from the Homo sapiens condition to the Homodeus condition will become one with the source. Noeton!

There are two types of bodies. The physical and the astral body. To make it clear, the astral body is IN the human body like a driver in a car. Thus it is a matter of quality of the one who drives the car. Therefore, it doesn't matter if the car or the vessel has the highest quality. The human body is genetically programmed to perish no matter the quality of the physical body. The Typhonian is an astral entity that has conquered the vessel, which is the human body, and is the astral body with divine potentiality.

By mapping out the astral body through physical, we see that sometimes it appears in the DNA and RNA. DNA and RNA are the bridge between consciousness and matter. Aether is the gateway to influence matter by enabling the Typhonian, under the right circumstances, to consciously enter the atoms of the physical.

Proved by science, there is a trace memory in each cell. Everything in the universe leaves a trace on encryption that can be decoded. Hence, this is the genetic potentiality of the Typhonian. His DNA reminds Him the past of His ancestors and the superiority that consumes the Homodeus species.

Additionally, there is an element in the DNA of the Gods that was called Ichor in ancient Greece. Through the presence of Ichor the individual that performs the Encounter, can feel the power.

Ichor is represented as a Black Mist or Dark Matter and it can be toxic to the uninitiated. Nous of the Typhonian can be changed through the presence of Ichor. This is called Metamorphosis and has many historical and mythical references.

From the ancient times those who attempted to communicate with the Gods have found out that this act requires the concentrated existence of Aether.

By conquering the minds of others, the Typhonian is able to manipulate Aether and use it to encounter the Gods.

Most of the Typhonians who experienced Metamorphosis, experienced positive changes in their lives and empowered their Conqueror abilities. It is not a coincidence that most of the infamous Conquerors of the past experienced an unexplained event before a Victory.

Without Darkness, there is no light

Assistance is acceptable. Especially from your own blood. As a Typhonian, you are a descendant from a divine spiritual lineage that was kept as a secret for thousands of years. Many were those who tried to convince themselves to be one of our kind, still with great failure. Those who came from the skies mixed with the Homo sapiens breed and thus the Typhonians were created. Several religions were founded at that moment, with Typhonians as the only representatives of the Gods.

Many of the Gods felt sorrow for the Homo sapiens race and attempted to elevate them. Those Defectors sympathized with the Homo sapiens beings and betrayed their secrets. This was the time that the wars between men and Gods began. The Gods were infuriated with the Defectors and left planet earth, leaving the loyal Typhonians to rule the abandoned planet. The Conquerors have always been in communication with the ancient Gods.

There are several Gods that used this planet as a residence. Some of Them did not care about the Typhonians, considering them impure. Others had great sympathy and respect towards the Conqueror Typhonians. Those are the Gods that NAOS is affiliated with. Without Their existence, the Typhonian would be a powerless being, as the Aether of power springs from Them, according to Their will.

Without the presence of the Gods, the genetic material of the Typhonian can not be activated. They are the source power of our kind. This can be done only by the Encounter. And thus this is the only way to achieve the complete Metamorphosis. With personal effort and by conquering the Essence of the Homo sapiens, the Typhonian is capable to avoid mortality.

This is another path to reach Higher Existence.

You are an apprentice, until you avoid the second death. Do not forget. Your life is a continuous cycle of learning and evolving. Receive the Gods as your mentors and teachers, because you are of the same spiritual blood. With Their guidance you shall transform to a higher being.

Be loyal to your Ancestors and therefore you will fulfill your purpose of your kind. We shall become the rulers of the earth once again.

The Gods will be awakened and the Seal of the Dream will be broken. Behold!

The secret teachings of the ancient Gods.

The teachings tell us that we can either continue living in this deluded, dreamy state, day and night, or wake up to the truth. When we engage in sleep, we become part of a long lineage. By remembering the Typhonians who have dedicated their lives to the teachings, the knowledge of their practice will be passed to us and will generate faith and gratitude for our tradition. The teachings were traditionally maintained as a secret, both as a sign of respect and as a protection against delusion of misunderstanding of the unprepared practitioners. They were never taught publicly nor given lightly, but were reserved for individuals who were prepared to receive them.

The teachings are not ideas to be collected, but a path to be followed.

Shadow of the Dream

After a long sleep, the same theories reappear. Without doubt they return richer and with new clothes, but the foundation remains the same and the new mask which they wear should not mislead the man of knowledge.

-Le Serpent Rouge-

In ancient years, some of the Gods were mixed with the human race and thus there were many children of this kind that developed supernatural powers. One such supernatural power is the psychic ability like clairvoyance or using the so-called third eye.

This gift was lost slowly in time due to disrespect towards the Gods.

The fact that the Gods will not transform the Homo sapiens to a higher being was considered by many researchers through the centuries and the answer is rather simple.

You cannot transform a rock to a tree. The genetic spirituality of Homo-sapiens is incapable to be changed to something that is Alien to it. Only those who have already the same genetic potentiality of the divine race can achieve Metamorphosis.

Those who came from the skies have cursed the Homo sapiens race with a disease that is similar to blindness. The Homo sapiens being is incapable to perceive reality. The definition of reality springs from the Essence of the individual's perception. Noeton!

A human uses the five senses to perceive only the 20% of the known world. Hence, it is impossible for the Homo sapiens being to define reality. In fact, there are plenty of realities. One could say «this is a beautiful house» and another «this is a bunch of stones». As reality arrives from objectivity, every single individual has a unique idea of reality. Therefore, if Homo sapiens race is consisted of 6 billion Homo sapiens beings, we can have six billions of different expressed "realities-truths".

Nevertheless, it is commonly said that reality is mostly based upon the most basic sense, vision.

The most common definition of reality is what the eyes see.

However, the Homo sapiens eye does not have the vision of a microscopic device. As the Homo sapiens being is watching an item, they are not seeing the molecules that the item is consisted of, but they are sure about the item's identity! The same theory is implied to the other four basic senses.

Also, one of the biggest dilemmas of the definition of reality is dreaming. Homo sapiens perceive dreams as tricks of the unconscious, unfulfilled wishes, false memories and in general as something fake. However, when the Homo sapiens being is in a dream state, he perceives the dream as a real situation until the awakening arrives. But, there are numerous cases that the individual awakens in the dream and then he wakes up in another dream. The Homo sapiens being is unable to understand that its life may be a dream with plenty of the so-called awakenings. There is no key to discriminate reality from dreams.

Reality arises from experience. If you experience situations, you know that they are real. In the dream world you have your experiences and thus this is a reality too.

The Typhonian perceives the reality and dreaming as the same. Homodeus and Homo sapiens beings are living under the shadow of the dream of those who came from the skies.

The Gods are dreaming of what we experience as real life. The task of the Typhonian is to perform the actual awakening of his ancestors, the Gods.

False Memories: A Scientific Approach

One of the most important issues considering human beings is how they distinguish reality from false memories, such as dreaming and imagination. Science move off not only to get rid of peculiarity and bias by declaring the departure of subjectivity (our inner world) from objectivity (our outer world), but to create a wide-ranging and comprehensive model of the external world as a universe autonomous of any individual human conception of it, whether revelatory or observed, and autonomous of human contribution within it; an acknowledged, public representation of a "reality" completely independent of human thinking and acting.

It is set by Western science the task to describe reality.

In eradicating those features of the supposed world that are not calculable, it downgraded them to a variety of personal, mental, mythical, fantasy, storytelling, fictional, religious, and other categories known as unreal. A few features of the world, such as taste, smell, and electromagnetism were changed from unreal to real as ways of evaluating them were discovered. Moreover, reality is intended to settled upon by all who look into. This technique of understanding reality gives in a conception of true belief as a model result of scientific rehearsal. Also, reality'a features are autonomous of what they are considered to be by any human being.

The basic topic of this chapter is the distinction of reality and imaginary representations like dreaming.

Defining dreaming is any mental activity taking place in sleep and a mental activity happening in sleep considered by vivid sensorimotor images that is experienced as waking reality in spite of such characteristic cognitive facets as impracticality or doubtfulness of time, place, person and activities; emotions, particularly fear, joy and fury prevail over unhappiness, embarrassment and guiltiness and from time to time attain enough power to cause awakening; recall for even very vivid dreams is temporary and tends to weaken rapidly upon awakening if not particular steps are taken to keep hold of it .

Still, there are good reasons why human beings might be concerned to differentiate dreams from reality.

Dreams are occasionally disjointed, weird series concerning known characters and situations. Puzzling such dreams with reality could have severe effects for interpersonal relations and the understanding of future real experiences.

A helpful start point for considering about the issue is conceiving the source monitoring and reality monitoring.

Source monitoring concerns individual's capability to tell from which of a numeral of dissimilar possible sources their memories might have occurred. Moreover, reality monitoring can be considered as a unique case of source monitoring.

Here the centre is on individual's capability to distinguish memories based on real events from memories that occur from dreams, imagined experiences, or delusions. There has been a good deal of pragmatic studies on the subject of reality monitoring, and it has be inclined to verify the conclusion that human beings are pretty good at telling real sources separately from imaginary sources.

Overall, it comes out that the distinction of real and imaginary experiences is motivated by two kinds of thoughts.

Memories that arise from real experience will normally have more perceptual and relative aspect, at the same time as those that are deliberately imagined might enclose outlines of the cognitive processes used at some point in the preliminary procedure of imagination. As a result, memories may be discriminated by their traits.

Secondly, judgement procedures in addition play a role in discriminating memories of real and fictional events. For instance, a person will be doubtful to consider that your memory of discussing with Alexander the Great was real since the individual knows he died before he or she was born

Reality monitoring failures are dangerous since human beings are expected to confuse what they created themselves with what they supposed when the creation is comparatively natural or without effort. In addition, even when numerous cues to source are accessible, they are not constantly used. Briefly, researchers can encourage false memories for multifaceted autobiographical actions by taking advantage of issues that would be anticipated to generate reality monitoring failures; by pushing the individuals to link what they are remembering to other events and people in their lives, and by pushing the individuals to believe that an occasion occurred.

Besides, people with high imagery capability appear to be more vulnerable to encouraged false memories, most probably because they make characterizations that are perceptions. Moreover, the first line of investigation regarding the reality that biased dream experience is sequentially rational. Even though many typify this rationality as narrative or story-like stability, a full of meaning inference is that a kind of sequential attachment lies beneath dreaming that is equivalent to the perceptual attachment thought to lie behind waking realization.

Dream-related attachment would maintain the moment-to-moment delusion that dreaming is happening from the first-person viewpoint (here) and in the biased present (now).

This here-and-now stage of rationality would proceed in similar with other mechanisms, and would possibly work on the entrance of biased consciousness, where it would be available for inspection by self-watching techniques.

Finally, dreaming is the original virtual reality. It is known that, dreamers frequently find themselves intensely located and entrenched in their dreams, believing the experience real, feeling and responding as though the actions of the dream are really taking place. In this esteem, the mind is capable of durable recurring experience of believing, inside dreams, in the reality of a person's sleep imagination, believing in the actuality of a person's own REM figments of the imagination, such as virtual murder, virtual death, virtual sex, virtual people or virtual events. At this time technology brings to people, artificial simulation and the option of virtual living all well-exercised in dream. It is not completely new for dreams to be used as representation for some of life's most important actions. It is considered that dreams are used as the original representation for dancing and fiction, for other expressive art forms, and for essential features of religious and spiritual belief.

To conclude with, cognitive explanations of false memories highlight procedures of encoding and following activation, the nature of the information assessed, the standard used, and the dissimilarities between heuristic and methodical processing. Interpersonal factors, agendas, self-focus, and feelings or individual differences are highlighted by social, motivational, and personality explanations.

The Power of History

Great power involves great responsibility.

-Franklin D. Roosevelt-

Looking through history, most human beings worshipped other hominid species as Gods. For instance, the Pharaohs themselves in ancient Egypt were worshiped as the sons of Gods. Literally speaking, the word pharaoh means in Egyptian hieroglyphics, "the one of the divine blood". Hence the reason is that they were the carriers of a divine bloodline. As a result, when a human being feels that another Homo sapiens is superior due to divine reasoning, immediately the superior one becomes powerful.

Demigods existed in ancient Greece. They were hominids that had the same characteristics of God and Man. They were admired because of their glorious achievements, known as labors. The true Kings of power.

The Conquerors.

It is not a twist of fate that Socrates defined the Demigods as daemons.

In time, conquerors were worshipped as true Gods among men. Alexander the Great was one of them. He was only a Homo sapiens and due to his ability to conquer (Homodeus), he developed a godly attitude. His immortal spirit shall remain forever in the souls of men as the most brilliant case of supreme Conquerism. Thus, Conquerism is a key to unlock immortality. Through history and time, only those who completed their goals gained true power.

The power to be influential upon the minds of others.

Most Homo-sapiens falsely believe that they possess a charisma from birth that makes them very important and can act as a very influential factor upon their social group. This false sense of pride weakens their judgment. The divine art of the Typhonian is Conquerism.

The Typhonian knows exactly where to seek higher power. As a result, the Typhonian wants the Homo sapiens race to support his power. It is not possible to gain higher power without other minds to support this power. Thus were created the first religions of man for the purpose of the Typhonian bloodline.

As a Typhonian, you are blessed by Typhon Himself.

You are what you are. Do not deny thyself! It is the purpose of the Typhonian to make others believe and spread his supremacy. Hence the secret of power is to conquer.

By considering thyself as a Conqueror you must be responsible for your acts.

The existence of responsibility in the actions of the Typhonian is the quickest way to tell if the individual has what it takes to be a Typhonian or not.

Reprogramming

Camilla: "You, sir, should unmask."
Stranger: "Indeed ?"
Cassilda: "Indeed it's time. We all have laid aside disguise but you."
Stranger: "I wear no mask."
Camilla: (Terrified, aside to Cassilda.) "No mask? No mask!"

-Robert, W, Chambers, The King in Yellow-

You are influenced by external elements. Your whole life is based upon a specific schedule.

The Gods have constructed outer factors to make the Homo sapiens being think less and serve more. Have you ever considered in how many square meters you live in? Homo sapiens are incapable to escape from their jobs, bills and personal problems. The Homo sapiens being is a prisoner of his life. A Typhonian is the Conqueror of life. The Typhonian knows exactly how to manipulate the life of Homo sapiens beings and his life as well.

From the early ages, the Typhonian knew that he is different from the other species, the Homo sapiens race. The feeling of dissimilarity got stronger as Homodeus lived and grew more and more in the Homo sapiens world. The Typhonian ancient genetic material enforced the will to re-identify from the Homo sapiens identity.

You are what you are. You are not what you have to be.

Disregard what you have been taught so far. Every single thing that you learned from any external factor is the Homo sapiens way of thinking and living, guided by the Gods. You are not supposed to have a life-span of 70-80 years. This model of aging serves the plan to recycle the Homo sapiens race. Remember that the great Pharaoh lived more than today's average of age in his earthly existence.

Besides, scientists have discovered that the Homo sapiens body is constructed to last more than 150 years, but there are always external factors that make life last less. Bad habits such as smoking, drinking alcohol and anti-hygiene are not the only reason for dying at the age of 80.

The most significant reason for this is the psychology and way of thinking of the mortal. The Homo sapiens being is taught that the life-span of an average Homo sapiens is around 70-80 years. This is one answer for the question of aging, meaning that the Homo sapiens being is forced to think and act according to what he has learned from external factors. In plain speech, everybody else is doing it, so should you.

Imagine for instance that an individual is raised with the idea that he will die at the age of 180 and he is not influenced by any other external elements like the death of others. This hybrid will manipulate his life-span psychosynthesis and will live longer, as he was made to live. The same basic concept of Reidentification goes with any idea or principle that has been taught by others or been experienced by the individual's standards.

The Homodeus species has the reprogramming procedure in its genes. From the early years of his life, the Typhonian has understood that he must re-identify himself away from the Homo-sapiens standards.

The Typhonian knows that he is different.

For the Typhonian it is natural to manipulate his inner cosmos according to His will. This is what it differentiates Him from the Homo sapiens race. Hence, the Typhonian avoids the outer elements that manipulate His Essence of existence and evolutes through the personal metamorphosis guided by those who came from the skies.

Create your Own experience and act one step further to accomplish the Reprogramming process. With personal effort and with the assistance of the Gods, the Typhonian is a flawless Conqueror of life and death.

Behold!

The San Greal of the Alien immortal bloodline

One Step Further

All the important decisions need to be considered twice or more in life.

This is because one has the experience of failure and does not want to hurry up and make the wrong choice. How many times have you said "If only I had a second chance"?
In general, life is a mechanism that is working both positively and negatively. This is the balance of nature called equilibrium.

This is an established law of initiation.

A Typhonian seeks perfection and not failure in every case. Perfection springs from wisdom and experience. The Typhonian has a rule in his life that says:

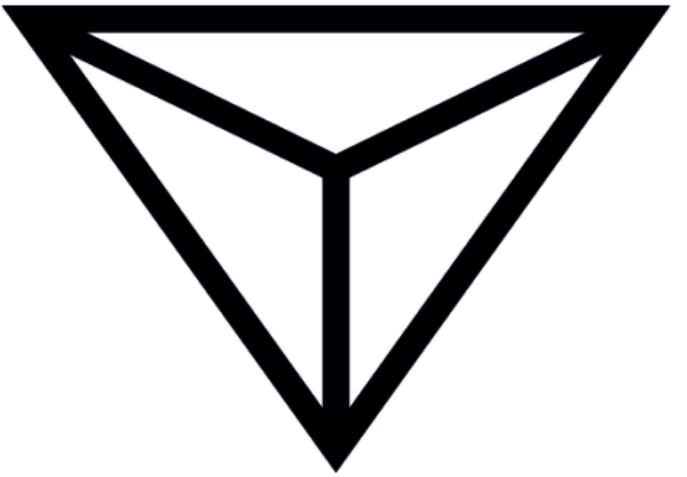
"In every situation in my life, I shall consider my actions one step further".

This means, in each and every moment of life.

One Step Further should be practiced in every situation, even in the simplest ones. This can save the Typhonian from undesirable results and can improve the quality of his life. Even before drinking water, the Typhonian should imagine and know its taste.

The speech of the Typhonian must be practiced to be direct and beyond criticism. The Typhonian thinks one step further before speaking. This is one of the best ways of manipulating situations through influencing individuals. The Typhonian will improve these skills by studying the people that he is associated with. The Typhonian has a schedule or plan for everything, especially for the important factors of his life.

From experience and failure only, one can achieve perfection.



The Conqueror

A table of excellencies hangeth over every people. Lo! It is the table of their triumphs; lo! It is the voice of their Will to Power.

~Friedrich Nietzsche, Thus spoken Zarathustra~

The feeling of triumph or the feeling of loss is centred in the solar plexus. In the belly, in the middle just below the ribs. Think of a time when a Homo sapiens praised you or gave you a really nice compliment. Think of a time when you felt very successful; think of a time when you felt failure.

Remember, and feel.

When Homo sapiens beings are nervous they say the phrase "butterflies in the stomach", but the location of the butterfly feeling is not usually the physical stomach, which is on the left side of the body, but rather in the belly, just under the bottom of the ribs. Feelings of guilt, foreboding of future bad events, worry, and insecurity, all are felt in the solar plexus.

Feelings of being abused, victimized, persecuted, or any other kind of disrespected boundaries are felt in the belly, in the solar plexus. The solar plexus channel is where your personal boundaries, as an individual are felt. It is the channel of hierarchy games: winners and losers, abusers and victims.

The choice is yours.

Aether feedback is immediate, through time and you can use it for navigation. Just think of doing something nasty to someone and feel the solar plexus responding in advance to the flow of energy, such an act would bring to you!

The solar plexus is filled with the Aether of gratitude, which is a powerful kind of surrender. Gratitude is the opposite of fear and resistance. Remember your gratitude received by your Homo sapiens believers and manipulate Aether with the appropriate breathing techniques.

Breathing the Aether realm makes you feel it. Deep slow belly breaths that go right into the Earth and make you more firmly centred in yourself. Most Homo sapiens do not breathe properly as their breath is shallow making only the top of the chest move.

The most resourceful alveoli are in the bottom of the lungs and shallow chest breathing means the air in the bottom of the lungs gets stale. Chest breathing means not getting enough oxygen and Essence.

Moreover, insecurity and panic attacks are caused by a blocked or non-functioning power channel. Someone who is having a panic attack usually cannot take a full, deep breath. It feels like there is a tight band, like a corset around the bottom of the ribs. This is tension of a closed solar plexus.

Projecting need is a power game. You see it in advertising all the time, advertisers seek to create need, and even insecurity because if you have something that someone needs, you have power over them.

Aether responds to free will. On body level, the solar plexus channel is all about the movement of Essence between people. The unconscious control games people use to try taking each other's energy were well described by the Christians wanting everyone to be Christian, to the Bodhisattvas vow of wanting all mankind to be "Saved".

The more you stay focused inward, in keeping your own personal energy levels clear and flowing, the less you are pulled into the control games.

Thus compassion is valuable, but even more valuable is to recognise that most acts of compassion are really self serving or simply said, egoistic. Looking for the hidden motives behind the appearance of "helping" and "selflessness" is an important key to really learn your own secret powers of Conquerism.

Hence mindfulness is paying attention to your thoughts and being skittish about the ones you feed. Anything that you give enough attention to, can potentially “wake up” and become self aware.

Types of Conquerism

"There is no such thing about a problem, without a gift for you in its hands. We seek problems because we need their gifts."

Richard Bach, "Illusions."

Noeton is the Alpha and the Omega of the three types of Conquerism

By conquering your Ego: First of all, the Conqueror must conquer his inner self. This is translated as the achievements of the personal goals and the manipulation of thyself. Before you conquer anything else, you must first dominate your earthly life. As a Conqueror, before conquering other beings you must first conquer yourself. You are the true God of thyself. You are the center of the circle. Do not forget this rule!

Without you, there is nothing.

By conquering your Life: Originally, the Conqueror must complete his goals according to his will. This can be done, by completing small goals at the very beginning. For example, you want to buy a car. By finishing this simple goal, the Conqueror perceives that he is gaining a small amount of power according to his needs. Thus by having a schedule of unfulfilled wishes and by completing most of his goals, the Conqueror becomes stronger. Lastly, this means that the Conqueror will never leave any goals incomplete.

By conquering others: The third way of Conquerism is to influence the lives of others in terms of "seduction". It is very important to create a profile of the Homo sapiens being. This indicates that you know the individual extremely good. To achieve this condition, the Conqueror must be social to gain information and knowledge about his social environment and gather human Faith. In addition, the Conqueror can project himself with various achievements of his previous stages of Conquerism. By making followers/believers, this is the basic principle to continuously manipulate Aether.

-Note: It is forbidden by the NAOS to engage in any illegal activities. Followers of NAOS should respect the personal life of human beings and the laws of his or her country/state. As it was stated before, the NAOS will cooperate with any investigation authorities concerning illegal actions of a member.-

There are 5 steps for practicing higher influence to others:

1. By communication, the Conqueror is able to create a profile of an individual of interest. Thus this is the time that He knows exactly the weak personality points. For example, the Homo sapiens's ideologies concerning religion, politics and life. (Note: It is significant to have further communication with your influence target, to have a better understanding of the individual and develop trust.)
2. By knowledge, you are able to distinguish if the individual is useful or not. You must categorize individuals according to your needs. A very good example is when you need someone to spread rumors about you. (Note: You must be able to improve your perception skills. By performing the first step, you shall develop your observation abilities.)
3. By helping. This means that you know the individual's problems and needs. To gain admiration, you must be involved with his needs. By solving one problem, you will achieve moments of personal transformation to a God.

4. By projection, the Typhonian can influence massively human beings in order to gather their Essence. By creating a project that has audience, the Typhonian uses the individual Belief System with a specific purpose.

5. By repeating the process the Conqueror will spread His influence upon others. This will increase His power and the flow of Aether.

Life belongs to Typhonians!

So does faith.

Conqueror's Breath of Life

"The symbol-maker who put the design on his shield was no lowly craftsman: the symbol is Typhon, spitting out of his fire-breathing mouth a dark, thick smoke, the darting sister of fire"

Aeschylus, Seven Against Thebes

The first step in training one's astral awareness involves developing concentration. The first thing to ruin the chances of a successful Encounter is thinking about everyday ordinary activities. You must practice being able to concentrate on one idea for several minutes without distractions. Here follows a process for developing concentration.

First, find a period of time that you can devote to your exercises every day. The best times are either before going to sleep or right after waking in the morning, as you are in a calm state of mind in both instances. Regardless of the time you practice, it is essential that you repeat the same pattern daily in order to establish a beneficial body-time routine. In plain speech, your mind will expect a period of training every day at your selected time, just like it expects to fall asleep when the night comes. Once you find a time to train, the next step is to find a place that is free of distractions. These exercises must be performed while you are sitting on a chair facing towards the part of your chosen room that is the least cluttered or disorderly looking. Never try these exercises while sitting on the bed.

Sit comfortably and close your eyes. Use your imaginations of the things that you have conquered during your day. Visualize things, situations, goals or minds that you have conquered and fill the air with their reality. It is now the time that all the Essence that is depended on you, will surround the atmosphere.

You will sense Aether covering your body.

Relax and Breathe the Triumph.

The key to feel Aether is the controlled breathing. The breath itself is a standard mechanism that works unconsciously and is valuable for the rotation of life. However, when this life mechanism is controlled, the level of consciousness is increased. The secret to inhale properly is to feel that the air that is breathed goes down to earth, through the nose till the feet!
Breathe deeply and slowly from your nose for 3-5 seconds and exhale from your mouth for 3-5 seconds. This is extremely helpful for controlling your breath.

A more vivid environment, moments of clarity and joy, a mood of creativity are some of the signs of taking the Essence. Moreover, you will feel revitalized and healthier.

The Encounter

Encountering the Gods is a ceremony that comes from the depths of ancient history. Its purpose is to attract the Gods to appear in physical and/or astral form. It is the way to have encounter with extraterrestrial entities; those who came from the skies. This Working has no essential relation to groups that practice either black or white magic. It is important to understand that ceremonial Workings have existed for millennia in order to sharpen the subjective perception of the Typhonians. The modern aspects of contemporary occult rituals must be ignored altogether since they are only a modern phenomenon.

It is extremely important to keep in mind that this Working is not for everyone. Before performing the Encounter, you must secure that you don't suffer from cardiovascular disease or any serious physical problems. The sight of the Gods for the first time may not be pleasant, especially for those who are not initiated. In conclusion, you are what you are. The Encounter is the way to discover Noeton.

By honoring your past, you honor the present.

The Encounter Hall

This Working of establishing a Encounter with the Gods must be performed inside a space of your choice. Doubts or disbeliefs must be conquered before starting the ceremony. The Encounter hall is to be viewed as another world, indeed extraterrestrial. This is the room to perform the Encounter with the Gods. The Working must not be interrupted so all necessary precautions must be taken. If it is a room that is used for encountering the Gods, the participant must disconnect any communication device and use a room that is isolated from the human eye. Make sure that nothing will disturb the most ancient ritual of all as this may result in a very complex situation. In order to encounter the Gods the Hall's aesthetics must be relative to the Typhonian sphere of origin.

The room itself must be empty of any objects that have no use for the purpose of the ritual. Alternative, black fabric may be used to cover the entire room and all items that are made of iron must be removed. To encounter Gods you have to try to make the Encounter hall correspond closely to the being's sphere of origin.

Still, the Gods do what They Will.

Hall Illumination is important for the setting of an attractive ceremonial environment. Moonlight or starlight can be sufficient, if not then you are free to illuminate the place with artificial means such as photographic red light. In addition, it is welcomed to use a single black or blue candle behind the participant.

The Working requires a focus point. In order to break down the procedure and making the Encounter process successful without building stone temples, Naos proposes the simplified symbolic use of a mirror and a horizontal point to use as an "altar". The mirror functions as a stargate while the altar plays a supportive role to serve the needs of the ceremony. In order to align better to the requirements of this process, it is recommended to use very low or very high frequency sounds since the Gods communicate at non-Homo sapiens frequencies. Any item that stimulates feelings or is historically connected to the Gods can be placed upon the "altar".

Keep in mind that this is your personal Temple.

To conclude, the secret of the Encounter is the preparation itself. By itself the preparation pleases the Gods since it is sign of great respect. Beginning the Encounter, you enter the Hall with direct will and iron concentration. The procedure for the Encounter is described bellow.

Typhonian Material

~Star Gate~

Use the mirror as the star gate to the astral plane, as it was used by true Witches and Warlocks for thousands of years. (When you gaze in the star gate, you can experience any entity in the same way you could see and hear someone talking to you through an open window.) Place the mirror towards West above the altar and in front of a comfortable chair (standing upright is also approved).

Concentrate on the liquid-like form of the star gate.

Creating a Star Gate.: Before using the mirror as the star gate, you must energize it with energy. Lift your hands up in a V-position for a while and feel Aether go down through your blood and when you feel ready lower your hands towards the mirror by feeling the energy dropping upon the mirror. Perform this action until you feel that you are exhausted. This stargate has now a strong bond with you. Though, you cannot proceed to Ritual afterwards. The transformation of the mirror into a star gate with this technique can be done only once. Finally, you must cover the stargate with clothe; do not forget that this is a gateway to other worlds and must stay secret and secure.

There are 3 types of structures that are proven to be effective:

1. The trapezoidal mirror. The trapezoid symbolizes the distorted reality, as it is an asymmetrical shape. Thus, this is the best option for encountering entities from other worlds.
2. The black mirror; you can create it by putting a glass upon a black board or thick paper. It symbolizes the infinite space.
3. The ordinary mirror or anything that has a reflection. It is used as a gazing point for thousands of years.

~Grail~

You need a cup or chalice filled with any stimulating liquid, such as wine. The Grail is the representation of the reservoir of Power, the female aspect of the Gods, and the subconscious of the magician. This is the realm of the inner Demons, the Shadows. The Grail connects the outer Fire Ocean of the Gods with the inner Dark realm of the Typhonian. Be certain what you use you can drink. It is preferable that the Elixir be stimulating, but not overpowering.

~Dressing~

Nudity is highly accepted by the Gods as it is the way that you are born. Hooded capes of black or red color are also welcomed in order to make you undistracted by external factors. Your everyday clothes remind you of everyday things, and this mundane mood is not desired in a magic temple. You are not allowed to wear items made of iron, as this will damage the quality of the magnetic field that is created during the Encounter. In group ritual face masks are also welcomed.

-Chanting-

It is very important to chant the word N- A -O- S as it is the key to the gate that leads to the Gods. You must learn to chant with meter. In group ritual all the participants should chant synchronized with the guidance of a Priest.

-Incense-

It is also helpful to burn a little incense, which helps put one into a slightly altered state of mind. Any scent will do at this point. It is recommended using a combination of frankincense and myrrh, because the scent sets a temple-like atmosphere.

-Timing-

The best hours to encounter the Gods are after midnight. Traditional magical holidays and dates of great significance are by far important.

-Vibration-

A bell, gong or a crystal must be used during the ceremony. In general, an item with a vibration must be used to start and finish the Encounter. The tonal qualities and the continuing vibrations are extremely powerful.

-Music-

It is suggested: Any music player device, preferably of good quality, along with music orchestrated for the Encounter. The participant should choose and organize the appropriate music before the ritual. During the Encounter, the pauses in the music will cue most of your actions, so the volume must be fairly loud. You can expect to read out any notes in a strong and loud voice with feeling.

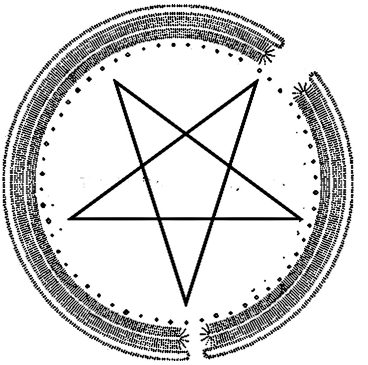
~Quartz Pyramid~

Crystal clear quartz was used in the ancient years for the construction of powerful objects in order to be used in rituals. In general, quartz has the ability to absorb and keep the energy from the environment and direct the energy according to the holder's will. This is the reason why so many devices, like watches, are consisted of quartz in order not to lose battery energy. The Temple uses pyramid shaped quartz for the purpose of keeping the Essence in balance and use it as a key to unlock the stargate. It is important to bear in mind that the quartz pyramid is connected to your spiritual body and nobody is allowed to touch the gemstone!

~Parchment of Typhon~

In the parchment of Typhon, you should write the number 56, the number of Typhon with either a black or a red candle.

~Pentagram of Typhon~



The 9 steps of Encounter

1. Entering the Encounter Hall

2. Breath of Conqueror

3. Opening the Nine Gates

4. Declaration

5. Invocation of Typhon

6. Burning the Parchment of Typhon

7. Ichor

8. Announcement

9. The End

1. Entering the Encounter hall

The room for encountering the Gods must be prepared as it is described before. Before entering the hall, you must forget anything that is connected to your earthly life. Anxiety and stress for any reason are some of the elements that can produce a negative environment for the Gods. It is significant to say that positive psychology before entering the sacred room is one of the keys to unlock other worlds.

Keep in mind that the Gods think and act in a very different way than humans do. They do not have earthly problems such as love affairs or paying bills. Thus you must alter your conscience into a non-human way of perceiving things in general. The Gods are not attracted even to the Typhonian that has not left his human side. Hence, it is very important to forget your current life.

Trust only your spirit and instincts.

The preparation of the room must contain the following: The Stargate hanged to a wall and a comfortable chair (or standing upright) in the same direction as the magical mirror. The appropriate lighting effect should be placed before entering the ritual room.

To conclude, the Typhonian must not think but feel the sacred atmosphere before entering the Encounter hall.

Imagination is the key to unlock reality.

By entering the Encounter hall, you must begin the ritual by hitting the bell nine times. This is the beginning of the ritual.

"Let the mystery begin!"

2. Breath of Conqueror

Use the breath of Conqueror as a meditation technique in order to prepare yourself properly.

3. Opening the Nine Gates

(Quartz pyramid should always face each angle/gate)

The Typhonian should draw mentally (with the quartz pyramid) or draw physically the Inverted Pentagram above the stargate. Members of NAOS may hang the Pentagram of Typhon on top of the stargate. By pointing the five points/angles of the inverted pentagram the Typhonian unlocks the first five gates of truth. The 5 senses are thus suppressed, like the allegory cave.

Gaze upon each of the five angles of the pentagram of Typhon.

"What is this that I can see? I am not what I can see. Thus I am not Sight"

~The first gate is opened. The sense of vision is no more.~

[Listen to the ritual sounds or the silence. Separate thyself from the notes and the sound effects.]

"Behold! I am not the sound. Thus I am not Hearing"

~The second gate is opened. The sense of hearing is inverted.~

Place your hand upon the altar.

"Am I what I touch? Thus I am not Touch"

~The third gate is opened. The sense of touch is reversed.~

Let your nostrils envelop the incense. Let drowsiness escape.

What I smell is not me! Hence I am not Smell

~The fourth gate is opened. The sense of smell is abolished.~

Drink deep from the ritual cup. The deep drinking of the universal energy is thus symbolized.

Things are not what they seem

"I drink from the Grail. I am not of what it is inside. Thus I am not Taste

~The fifth gate is opened. The sense of taste is thus transformed.~

All senses are now disbanded one-by-one. Your soul is the only thing that gives you some sense of reality.

Facing towards the four corners of the Encounter hall by pointing clockwise with the quartz pyramid, the participant will call the Gods of the Past according to his choice.

[Facing towards Southern corner/ sixth gate]

"I open now the Gate. I call you now Gods of fire"

Stop and conceive the existence of the Gods of Fire.

[Facing towards Eastern corner/ seventh gate]

"The Gate now is open. Come forth Gods of air"

Stop and conceive the existence of Gods of Air.

[Facing towards Northern corner/ eighth gate]

"I unlock the Gate at this time. I summon Thee Gods of earth."

Stop and conceive the existence of the Gods of Earth.

[Facing towards Western corner/ ninth gate]

"The Ninth Gate is open. May the Gods of water bless me with Their presence!"

Stop and conceive the existence of the Gods of Water.

Stop and conceive this realization of your inner mystery in front of the Stargate.

4. Declaration

By looking your reflection in the Stargate, you must lift the quartz pyramid towards the mirror and declare your non-human origin in your own words.

For example:

"The Gods are my ancestors. Those who came from the Skies are of the same blood. I am genetically superior from the mortal human being and thus I am ready for the metamorphosis to begin. I am the child of the Gods that gave me the gift to become a Conqueror. I am here to be reborn and deny my human past and avenge those who chased us. I am a Typhonian!"

HAIL TYPHON, the true Prince of Darkness, the God of the Abyss!
Noeton!

Your words must be sincere and proud. Proceed with courtesy.

5. Invocation of Typhon

In the name of Typhon, the Lord of the primitive world, I embark upon the inner passage to seek truth about my own existence.

Oh Gods and Goddesses hear me now and join me in this hidden passage. I embrace the word of Typhon and I am calling you now to become one with me as we are of the same blood.

I call you now Echidna, our Dragon Mother to bless me with your breath.

Hail Orthos, the Cthonic God
Hail Cerberus, Gurdian of the Underworld
Hail Lernaean Hydra, the Serpent Goddess
Hail Gorgon, the dreadful God

I invoke and greet you oh great Gods to embrace Typhon's wisdom and as I turn my eyes to the Stargate you shall walk in this sacred place.

Appear in the Stargate and in my mind as I hold Noeton!

As I burn the parchment with the number 56, your smoke will reveal your presence.

Hail the Prince of Darkness, Haire Typhon!

6. Burning the Parchment of Typhon

By burning the Parchment of Typhon, you shall pause and experience the presence of the Gods.

7. Ichor

After feeling the highest form of Aether entering your body, drink from the Grail as it is blessed by the blood of the Gods. You are now drinking the nectar of the Gods, the undying Essence.

8. Announcement

Announce yourself after this moment of divine Metamorphosis by raising the quartz pyramid towards the sky.

For example:

"I think, I understand, I feel..Noeton! I am a Typhonian, the Conqueror, and the rightful king of this world. I honored my ancestors by bringing the essence of life and having a Encounter with those who came from the skies. I am now one of those who came from the Gods. I praise the Eldest God who is the Alpha and the Omega among the ranks of the Immortals!
Hail Typhon!"

9. The End

Hit the bell nine times and close up the ritual by saying

"So it is done and shall be done"

Leave the room and return to your earthly encounters and celebrate.

The purpose of the Encounter is to help the Typhonian initiate to accomplish his goals and become into a Higher Being. The encounter with the Gods is not only a path to succeed in Conquerism, but a path to undefiled wisdom.

The Truth of the lie

"If you repeat a lie often enough, it becomes the truth."

~Joseph Goebbels~

A miracle often indicates an event accredited to divine interference. These events have the power to surprise human beings and make them to think and behave in a positive way.

Religious texts such as the Bible or Quran constructed a huge belief system by making their believers to accept miracles as history facts. These supernatural facts are the strength of each religion in order to verify Divinity without the possibility of doubts.

Still the Typhonian doubts and does not believe!

From the early civilization of mankind, several supernatural events occurred. The stories of unexplained phenomena influenced the way of living, the culture and all the religions of human beings. The ghost stories and poltergeist phenomena make people to think and believe that there is another world on planet earth.

This "Shadow World" made humans to become excited and created their own definitions of the truth. Their conception of truth led them to create paranormal groups, cults, sects and conspiracy theories. They created small Belief Systems in order to feel superior to the average human being. Most of these "truth holders" are very popular in today's society and they have a big amount of Followers. Still, the truth is quite different.

A great example concerning the Truth of the lie is the so called "Lucky charm". It is commonly believed that an item with specific significance to its holder may have supernatural abilities that can influence positively one's life. Still, only the holder knows that the item has a special power, while other people deny its significant identity. Furthermore, today's media sources can influence so strongly society's beliefs that governments pay huge amounts of money to media in order to become positively accepted by the audience. The truth is that with certain acts one can transform others' thinking into a stable Belief System. As it was mentioned before, human faith is like a muscle and it needs exercise. With regular projection of specific events either supernatural or super-positive, one can develop and enstrengthen society's beliefs.

Consider for instance a street magician who can persuade the audience that he has supernatural powers. It is a common secret that a show magician spreads rumours about his uncanny powers and thus improving his social prestige. Therefore, certain individuals who can make society to believe that they are "special" are the true Conquerors of humans. NAOS supports any lawful act that can make people to believe and thus Typhonians are not against any kind of religion. Typhonians want religions to exist and continue the work of the Gods.

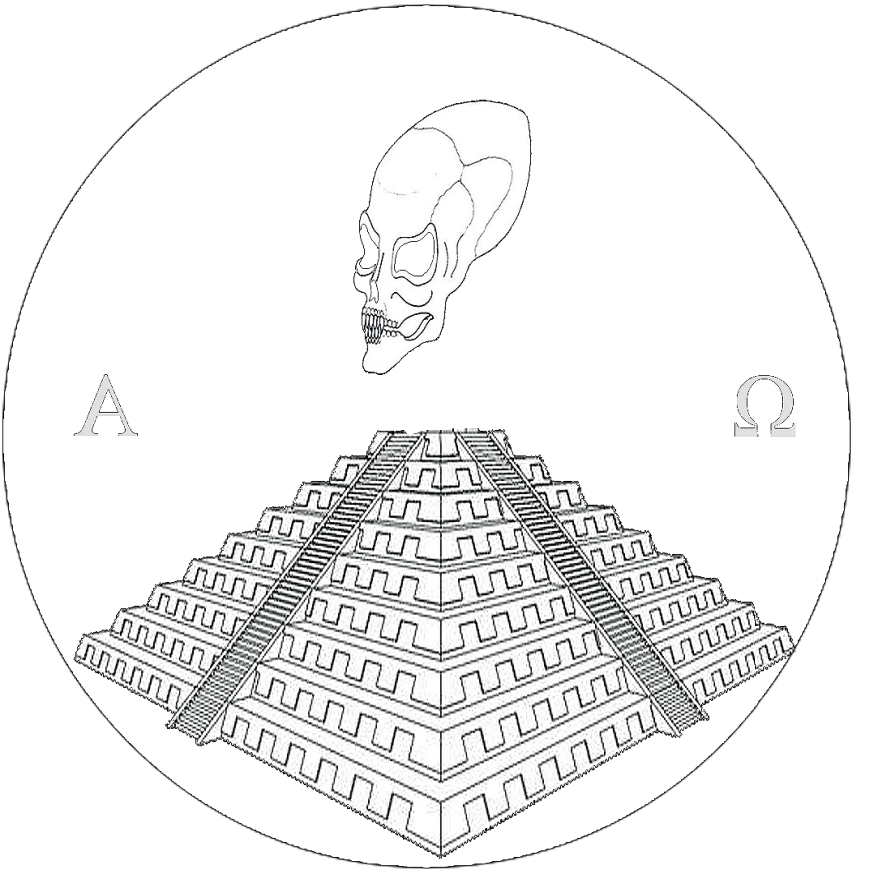
Nowadays, there is a new miracle entitled as "Extraterrestrial Existence Belief System". Unidentified Flying Objects (UFOs), Men in Black (MIB), and conspiracy theories about the existence of Typhonians are a fine example of this modern-based Belief System. It is a fact some of the miracles are real. It is a fact that Typhonians exist.

Still, all these modern miracles have only one purpose: To create followers of a certain truth. This truth is used by the Gods for thousands of years in order to gather their Essence. Thus this is the Truth of the lie.

We are the continuity of the Gods.

We are today's Conquerors.

We are true Typhonians.



Pythias Gramata

The Delphic Maxims or Letters of Pythia are inscribed at Temple of Apollo in Delphi and were delivered by Apollo Himself to The Seven Sages of Greece. The Delphic Maxims recommend a specific way of living, behaving and thinking that is highly correlated with the inner mysteries of the Temple. Below there is the only authentic translation from ancient Greek to English. By comprehending in depth the meaning of the Maxims, the Typhonian can achieve the Final Metamorphosis and rule the planet earth.

It is the secret that remains untold and unseen for thousands of years.

The answer is within the question.

A Word about Noeton

It is true that many individuals, who share the same interest in the Occult, indicate the fact that Our teachings are well-known to them. It is true that some individuals believe that they already posses the NAOS knowledge.

It is true though that only a few can understand the full meaning.

Occasionally, our actions are spontaneous. Impulsivity is a characteristic that can bring dangers to our lives. This is again a skill that most of the occultists always forget in their everyday performance. In order to understand better the above, an example will clarify things.

An Occultist is smoking, looking for a job and trying to flirt with a woman.
Then, at the end of day, he decides to perform an invocation.

What is the difference amongst us?

A Typhonian is smoking and gets the opportunity to quit/reduce smoking, because he wants to do that on purpose. To become a Conqueror I°. After all, it is good for your self.

A Typhonian is looking for a job consciously that this can work as an achievement and thus he will feel the Power, the true Essence. To become a Conqueror II°. After all, it is good for your life.

A Typhonian is flirting with a woman, which leads to sexual/romantic gratification with consciousness of being a Conqueror III°.

Conclusion: Every single action that Typhonians perform is made on purpose for their own good/development and to attract the Gods.

The rest of the occultist or LeftHandPath followers are those who are the ignorant of the powerful procedure entitled Conquerism.

Always ask yourself: Why I am doing that action ?

Always answer: Because I am a Conqueror

Silence is gold?

In most cases it is difficult for a secret to be hidden. This is because it is in the human nature to reveal secrets for gaining sympathy. The truth is that this is a way to gain trustworthiness and one of the best ways to manipulate others.

Though, the littlest secret of all can become extremely powerful if it remains unrevealed forever. Some things cannot be told to anyone. By keeping something secret that you only know it, can become a unique part of you. It is under your possession and it cannot be shared to anyone. This implies true power.

On the other hand, it is good to have people caring about you. By sharing with human beings your problems or your wishes makes them to think your considerations even with your absence. Thus, you must manipulate not only their thoughts but their feelings too. A Typhonian knows exactly how to handle humans to care about him. This is the chance to have followers reprogramming your reality!

Hence, the secret is the art of Conquerism.

A secret can be attractive, even if you don't have one.

Know ThySelf

A word of Differentiality

From the existence of the human race, those who thought and considered different gained a position in the Conqueror Pantheon amongst others. Those who understood that the alternative possesses a certain power understood that dissimilarity is the source of knowledge.

American poet Robert Frost said that "The best things and best people rise out of their separateness; I'm against a homogenized society because I want the cream to rise." It is true that on top of the pyramid the homogeneity disappears and thus this is one of the reasons that the small pyramid separates itself from the big pyramid or the grand trapezohedron. This is the reason that our eyes focus on something that is different, for instance a black spot in the white milk. It is natural for all living organisms to be attracted by differentiality.

Consider for a moment:
a) How many of you chose a sexual partner by saying "I like him/her, he/she's different.
b) How many of you liked a movie because of its different content compared to other movies.
c) How many of you attracted by a rare item?

The above examples indicate that differentiality means superiority.
Differentiality can transform someone or something into someone or something.

Item example: You found a rusty coin inside a box in your attic and you decided to collect it and observe it. In addition, you decide to put it in your wallet and investigate it afterwards. Until this moment, you have curiosity and excitement about the rusty coin. Soon afterwards, you forget the incident and continue your everyday life. During midnight, you decided to search for about the item. You take your Standard Catalogue of World Coins and discover that your coin is from the period of 1870 and it is the rare Carson City half dollar. You are now filled with pleasure and more curious how that old coin was found in your disorganized attic. The next step is to find someone who may know its origins. Immediately, you decided to make a phone call to your grandfather and ask him about the coin. He was excited as well and he told you the story behind this coin. US President Harry S. Truman gave that coin to your grandfather in 1948 as a gift. President Truman was pleased by your grandfather's performance (as a worker) in the creation of the second-floor balcony of the White House. After a while, you realized that you had a rare and expensive coin in your hands that was touched by the US President Truman.

The outcome of this little story is that a coin turned into a coin.

The central character of the story, which is you, investigated the story about a coin that turned into the history of the coin that belonged to President Truman, which costs thousands of dollars. Therefore, by proper study and investigation of an item you can achieve differentiality. This is the basis by creating or defining objects used in Encounter.

Person example: You are walking the Forest Park in New York and you decided to rest on a bench near the Carousel. It was Saturday and the Carousel was full of children and parents having fun. It was the first time you saw so many people in one area and thus you enjoyed the whole scene. Suddenly, your gaze fell on a old mysterious man who had an exotic woman tattoo on his face. The most contradictory thing about the man was that he was wearing a black Italian costume with a blue tie and white expensive shoes. When you returned back home, you searched your encyclopedia about old-school woman tattoos and you found that this kind of tattoos was made by infamous sailor and tattoo artist Norman Keith Collins, known as Sailor Jerry. This strange old man definitely met Sailor Jerry, probably somewhere in the Hawaii Islands or during the war in Vietnam. It was an ordinary story that made you search and investigate the history of another person because of his differentiality.

It seems that separateness from the mass can transform someone with a tattoo into someone with a history in the seven seas, perhaps a war hero.

The purpose of the above examples served for two purposes.

1) The purpose of differentiality

By deeply understanding Conquerism III ° a Typhonian is capable of stimulating society and Himself. It is unquestionable that individuals who earned admiration displayed talents, attitudes and characteristics that made them unique, different from the mass. By expanding the word of differentiality a Typhonian can use this tool concerning the development of his inner and outer perception.

Selective open-mindedness plays a vital role in the development of differentiality.

2) The purpose of investigation

Both purposes are the strong basis of NAOS. It is the Alpha and the Omega of Our spiritual existence and the significance of the Alien perspicacity.

Does Cthulhu exist?

(Article from the Conqueror Journal)

After the death of the founder of the entity, called Cthulhu, several magicians and occult societies tried to bring the tentacles from fiction to reality. But what is fiction?

Fiction derives from the Latin word “fictus” and its past participle “fngere”, which means “to invent”, “to shape”. Therefore, Cthulhu is shaped by someone or by many.

We know the fact that Chtulhu is shaped and invented by Lovecraft because we know Lovecraft, we have read Lovecraft, we know people who met Lovecraft and we have photos of him. But what about the entity called Jesus of Nazareth? Is this entity fictional (shaped and/or invented) or real?

Think it for a while and make your conclusions.

There is no historical evidence that Jesus of Nazareth existed and died on the cross, except the gospels that were written by someone. Still, billions of people believe that Jesus existed and they have created thousands of church to worship his name.

Do you see any resemblance between the Gospels and Lovecraft stories?

Of course you can see the similarities. Human beings laid their beliefs on the Gospels who shaped the figure of Jesus without proving his existence. However, this happened before 2000 years and we have not photos of the apostles (or the author).

Now it is the time to ask: “So what is your point?”

My point is that I have already indicated the secret of all religions and the existence of entities. The next diagram can explain in simple words that Cthulhu exists.

A reader reads the Bible ----- > Releases one Energized Belief
Thousands of readers read the Bible ---- > Release thousands Energized Beliefs
Energized Belief ------ > Jesus’ existence

Put instead of the word Bible, the stories of Lovecraft and instead of Jesus the word Cthulhu.

The conclusion is that both "fictional" entities exist.

Right now. This moment.

One can ask: "Do you have proof that Cthulhu exists?"

My answer will be a question: "Do you have proof that Jesus exists?"

The answer is rather simple. Those who shaped the figure of Jesus knew this little secret which says "Try to make something believable in order to make humans believe". This is the Truth of the lie, as indicated in the Typhonia Mysteria and this is the reality of the existence of the Elder Gods and Chtulhu Himself.

Despite the fact that Lovecraft did not believe in what he was writing and the Cthulhu mythos, he had the talent to transform fiction into reality. A classical paradigm of his talent was the genesis of the infamous Necronomicon. It is not a twist of fate that thousands of occultists use the power of a fictional book in order to evoke Demons and Spirits. It does not matter whether Necronomicon is invented by someone or created by the Mad Arab. The only thing that matters is the reality of the Magician's experience.

Reality derives from experience.
Experience derives from objectivity.
Objectivity derives from "in the same vein" massive subjectivity.

Finally, I would like to give you a word of warning after reading this article:

Be careful while reading Lovecraft. Cthulhu is so real like your next door neighbour.
